MERIDIAN TO HOST ELECTION OVERVIEW TOWN HALL

- WHAT: Meridian Town Hall
- WHEN: Wednesday, October 26, 6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.
- WHERE: Compass Public Charter School – 2511 W. Cherry Ln, Meridian, Idaho 83642
- WHO: Presenters include Meridian Mayor Tammy de Weerd, City of Meridian and representatives from community groups who will provide information regarding the Western Ada Recreation District’s Aquatic Bond and the Meridian Library District’s Bond.

This interactive Town Hall will give residents a chance to learn more about the local bonds they will be voting on in the upcoming election.

“The upcoming election includes two initiatives that will have a great impact on our community. This Town Hall will give citizens a chance to learn more about these two ballot measures and an opportunity to ask questions,” said Mayor Tammy de Weerd, City of Meridian.

Mayor Tammy will also provide an updated regarding the courthouse issue with Ada County.

The Town Hall will be live streamed on the City of Meridian YouTube channel and a video will be posted the following day to the City News and Meetings page on the City’s website, www.meridiancity.org.
