CITY OF MERIDIAN SEEKS TREE DONATION TO CELEBRATE HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES

Meridian, ID – The Meridian Parks and Recreation Department is seeking the donation of a large, live evergreen tree for the City’s annual Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony. The ceremony is scheduled for Friday, December 2, 2016, in Generations Plaza in Downtown Meridian.

The donated tree must be located in or around the Meridian area, it must be 35 feet in height or taller, and be accessible from the front or side yard of the property.

The tree will be displayed at Generations Plaza, located on the corner of Main Street and E. Idaho Avenue throughout the month of December. It will be illuminated each night to help the City of Meridian celebrate the holidays.

Anyone interested in donating a tree should contact City Arborist Elroy Huff at 888-3579 by Friday, November 4, 2016.
