Meridian Seeks to Fill Historic Preservation Commission Vacancy

MERIDIAN – The City of Meridian is currently seeking an individual to fill a vacancy on its Historic Preservation Commission. This commission meets the second Thursday of each month at 5:30 p.m. at Meridian City Hall.

The Historic Preservation Commission works to preserve the character and fabric of historically-significant areas and structures within the city of Meridian, in order to honor and preserve its rich heritage for future generations.

Applicants must be at least 18 years old, reside within the Meridian city limits or its area of impact and have a demonstrated interest, competence, or knowledge in history or historic preservation. Candidate with professional training or experience in the disciplines of architecture, history, architectural history, urban planning, archaeology, engineering, law, or other disciplines relevant to historic preservation are preferred.

Anyone who would like to be considered for this voluntary position should complete an application form, which can be found on the City of Meridian website, www.meridiancity.org, under the City Government link or obtained from the Meridian City Clerk's office. In addition, a letter of interest and resume should be sent to Mayor Tammy de Weerd at Meridian City Hall, 33 E. Broadway Avenue, Meridian, ID., 83642, by Friday, March 6, 2015.
